Getting to City Campus

By car: Junction 10 of the M6 is the nearest motorway junction. The University is split into two sites – both of which are sign-posted from the Ring Road and the A449. Although there is only very limited metered parking by the main reception on Wulfruna Street, there are a number of public pay car parks within walking distance. Of these, the Civic Centre car park, at the end of Wulfruna Street, or the long-stay car park off Whitmore/Broad Street are the closest. Satnav location for main reception is WV1 1SE. Satnav location for MX Building, Molineux Campus is WV1 1AD.

By bus: buses come into the main bus station in Pipers Row from all over Wolverhampton and the West Midlands.

By train: the train station is on the main London, Birmingham and Edinburgh lines. The station is on Railway Drive, just outside the Ring Road.

By metro: the Midland Metro offers a service every 10 minutes throughout the day from Birmingham Snow Hill to Wolverhampton St George's via West Bromwich.

On foot: the City Campus is right in the centre of Wolverhampton. It is a seven minute walk from both the train station and St George's metro terminus, and a five-minute walk from the main bus station.

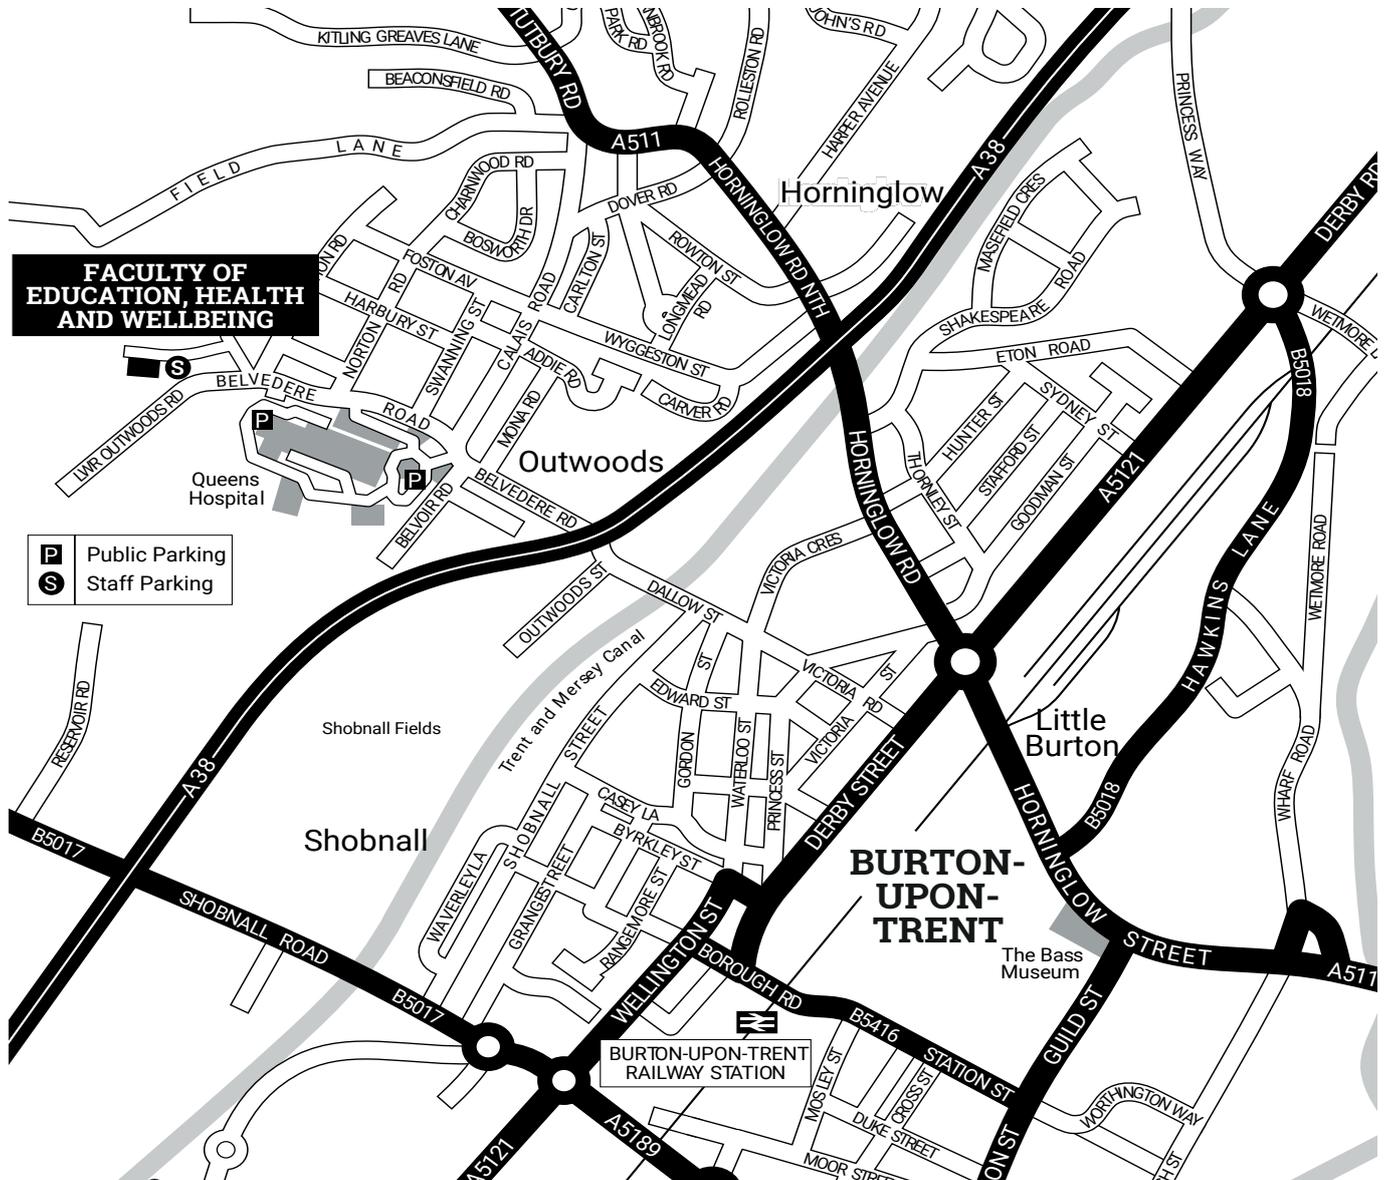

Getting to University of Wolverhampton Science Park

By car: situated on Glaisher Drive, just off the Stafford Road (A449), the Science Park is five minutes from Wolverhampton city centre, the bus and railway stations. It is accessible from the M6 motorway, northbound and southbound. Parking is available on site. Satnav location is WV10 9RU.

By bus: the 503, 504 and 506 bus services run frequently from the city centre along the Stafford Road, with a stop just outside the entrance.

By train: the Science Park is a 15-minute walk from the centre of Wolverhampton.

Burton-upon-Trent street map

By car: approaching from the south (Birmingham or Lichfield), the hospital is signposted from the A38. Driving from the north (Derby) on the A38, you'll need to take the turning to Burton and pick up the signs for the hospital from town. Coming up Belvedere Road with the main entrance to the Hospital on your left, take the next right after Denton Road (by the bus shelter), stay left when the road forks and the School of Health and Wellbeing is 50 yards further up on your left. Parking for the School of Health and Wellbeing is available in the main hospital car park. Satnav location is DE13 ORB.

By bus: the number 3 and 3A Arriva bus runs approximately every 10 minutes from New Street (in Burton town centre) to the bus stop just outside the main entrance to the Hospital.

By train: Burton-upon-Trent is on the Birmingham to Derby line. Leaving from just outside the railway station, the 3 and 3A Arriva bus takes you to the Hospital, as above.
